The diagram shows a bracketed elimination race structure. On the left, the starting grid lists 16 racers (JB16, JB79, JB112, JB99, JB12, JB33, JB17, JB117, JB4, JB2) and their respective times and split times. On the right, the bracketed structure shows the progression of the race. The top bracket shows a race between JB16 and JB79. The middle bracket shows a race between JB112 and JB99. The bottom bracket shows a race between JB12 and JB33. The next level shows a race between the winners of the top and middle brackets, and another between the winners of the middle and bottom brackets. The final bracket shows a race between the winners of these two previous races. The bottom-most bracket shows a race between the winners of the top and middle brackets from the previous level, and another between the winners of the middle and bottom brackets from the previous level. The final race is between the winners of these two previous races.
